

Sunday, May 20, 2007

Revelations 3:20-22

Revelations 3:20-22 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him and he with Me. To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me in My throne, even as I also overcame and have sat down with My Father in His throne. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Is there comfort for my pain and loneliness?

Are you feeling alone, and in need of comfort? Are feelings of emptiness, sorrow and pain filling your heart? Do you yearn for love, acceptance and peace? I have the answer for you. In Revelations 3:20 we read that Jesus is standing at the door, and He knocks. Jesus is offering to give you all the love, peace and acceptance you need. He is offering you His joy, and life in abundance. But do we listen?

In this piece of scripture we see something of the character of Christ. We find Him standing at the door to our lives. We see a Christ that patiently, but persistently, is knocking, and offering us the opportunity to let Him come in to our lives. We can all recall instances in our lives where we considered turning to Him, and maybe even talking to God. It was because we heard the knocking, but could not really get ourselves as far as opening the door. Don't worry, because now, once again, you are hearing Jesus knocking. He would love to enter and have a feast with you. Whilst reading this, another opportunity of committing your life to the Lord is presenting itself. What will you do about it?

As you sit down and think about the areas of your life which you have reserved for yourself as private, maybe areas of emotional pain and hurt, areas where a grudge or hatred against someone is closed away, you will realize that it is just those areas that are robbing you of your joy, and experiencing a life of joy and abundance. Open up all the doors to Jesus, and allow Him in all areas of your life. Where Jesus enters, healing and joy will follow.

I know we all have difficult times, and we all feel in need of love and acceptance. Although I do not know everybody that will read this personally, I do know that none of us are without these needs. Today I invite you to open the door to your life, and allow Jesus entrance. Give Him the opportunity to restore your soul.

Should you wish to write me, and are in need of someone who would listen and pray with you... Please do. david@davidniebuhr.com

For More Messages like this one, please visit www.davidniebuhr.com